

Judith Albrecht works as a social anthropologist and documentary filmmaker in Berlin. Her main fields of interest, over the last 9 years, were questions of migration, memory and gender. Her main research field became Iran. She writes her Dissertation about „transnational relations of Iranian women (Teheran, Los Angeles, Berlin)“ and teaches at Freie Universität Berlin. She was one of the founders of the AG „Deutsch im Asyl“ for asylum seekers in Germany and is executive manager of the MEMOS society- Rememberance of crises and conflicts.