

Wolfgang Müller-Funk, professor for Cultural Studies at the Univ. of Birmingham (1999), since 2009 at the Univ. of Vienna). He has supervised national research projects on literature and culture in the Habsburg Empire, on Romanticism in Austria; he was 2nd speaker of the PhD college Cultures of Difference at the University of Vienna (2006-2010). Monographs: Die Kultur und ihre Narrative (2002/2008), Kulturtheorie (2006/2010), The Architecture of Modern Culture. Towards a Narrative Cultural Theory (2012), Theorien des Fremden (2016). He is co-editor of the series Kultur- Herrschaft- Differenz at Francke publishers, Tübingen 2013. Consultant of the commission Iustitia et Pax, participant of the interfaith and intercultural between Iran and Austria as between Indonesia and Austria. Many guestprofessorships and fellowships abroad.